

Turner White

Sales Intern

Professional Experience

Turner White joined DAUM after achieving a B.S. in Business Administration with a Finance Emphasis from Chapman University, where he also played collegiate baseball. His experience as a student-athlete instilled in him a relentless work ethic, discipline, and a results-driven mindset, which he applies daily in his role. Specializing in the sale and leasing of industrial properties throughout Orange County, Turner is committed to delivering exceptional service through consistent hard work and resourcefulness. He works with a team of experienced brokers who have assisted clients through every business cycle over the past 40 years. Turner prides himself on his ability to navigate complex challenges, ensuring clients receive strategic and tailored solutions to meet their unique business needs. His dedication to excellence and his hands-on, day-in and day-out approach set him apart as a trusted advisor in the industrial real estate market.
