Professional Experience

Sam Andrews is an Associate at DAUM Commercial Real Estate based in Los Angeles, focused on helping tenants, owners, and investors identify opportunities across industrial, investment, and land sales within the Central Los Angeles submarket.

By actively sourcing opportunities and maintaining ongoing conversations with property owners, tenants, and investors throughout Central Los Angeles, Sam helps clients gain access to real-time market intelligence and off-market possibilities. His proactive outreach and disciplined follow-up expand deal visibility, increase optionality, and support stronger positioning during negotiations.

Sam works to guide his clients through each stage of the transaction process, from initial market research and property tours to active deal discussions. His background in marketing supports effective property positioning and clear communication, ensuring clients are well-informed and strategically advised.

Sam earned a Bachelor of Arts in Marketing from Loyola Marymount University, where he graduated with academic honors and was recognized for leadership involvement. He developed a strong foundation in market analysis, business strategy, and client-focused communication--skills he applies when advising clients across Central Los Angeles' competitive commercial real estate landscape. Focused, responsive, and relationship-driven, Sam is committed to delivering value through consistent market engagement and a results-oriented approach.
